CALIFORNIA COMMUNITY SCHOOLS PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM: IMPLEMENTATION PLAN TEMPLATE

CA CS Framework Overview

A community school is any school serving pre-Kindergarten through high school students through a “whole-child” approach, with an integrated focus on academics, health and social services, youth and community development, and community engagement. It is an equity-driven and assets-building school transformation program.

Adopted in 2022, the CA CS Framework identifies 4 Pillars of Community Schools, Key Conditions for Learning, Cornerstone Commitments, and Proven Practices as follows:

Pillars of Community Schools: Integrated Student Supports; Family and Community Engagement; Collaborative Leadership and Practices for Educators and Administrators and; Extended Learning Time and Opportunities

Key Conditions for Learning in a Community School: Supportive environmental conditions that foster strong relationships and community; Productive instructional strategies that support motivation, competence, and self-directed learning; Social and emotional learning (SEL) that fosters skills, habits, and mindsets that enable academic progress, efficacy, and productive behavior, and; System of supports that enable healthy development, respond to student needs, and address learning barriers.

Cornerstone Commitments of Community Schools: A commitment to assets-driven and strength-based practice; A commitment to racially just and restorative school climates; A commitment to powerful, culturally proficient and relevant instruction; and a commitment to shared decision making and participatory practices.

Proven Practices of Community Schools: Community Asset Mapping and Gap Analysis; A Community School Coordinator; Site-Based and LEA-Based Advisory Councils, and Integrating and Aligning with Other Relevant Programs.

Capacity-Building Strategies Overview

The S-TAC has launched the Capacity-Building Strategies: A Developmental Rubric to serve as a road map for both LEAs and school sites and is meant to enhance the adoption, implementation and sustainability of community schools. The Capacity-Building Strategies include a focus on:

1. Shared understanding and Commitment
2. Collective Priorities: Setting Goals and Taking Action
3. Collaborative Leadership
4. Coherence: Policy and Initiative Alignment
5. Staffing and Sustainability
6. Strategic Community Partnerships
7. Professional Learning
8. Centering Community-based Curriculum and Pedagogy
9. Progress Monitoring and Possibility Thinking

Strategies, Priorities and Goals

Describe the main process goals and action steps for the school site's community schools initiative. Add lines as needed. Use the phase-specific activities outlined in the Developmental Rubric as a guide.

Strategy 1: Shared Understanding and Commitment

LEAs and schools raise awareness of community schools throughout the community, developing a shared understanding of the community schools approach that is centered on establishing racially just, relationship-centered schools. Schools and LEAs answer the question, "why a community school for my school/district?"

Shared Understanding and Commitment Built Around the Overarching Values

After engaging interest-holders to answer the question, "why a community school for my school?", share your response to that question in the box below. In your response, be sure to indicate how your site's understanding of community schools reflects its commitment to the CA CS Framework through the Overarching Values (Overarching Values can be accessed here):

1. Racially-just, relationship-centered spaces
2. Shared power
3. Classroom-community connections
4. A focus on continuous improvement

Describe the developmental plans for ensuring these values are reflected in your community schools work:

We see the Community Schools model for its potential to bring transformational change in real, meaningful, and research-proven ways that redistribute power and improve outcomes for all educational partners of our school community. Through a Community Schools approach, we dare to envision a healing, transformational cycle where families thrive and cause students to thrive, and cause schools to thrive and ultimately, communities thrive: a self-sustaining chain revolving around each individual member of our school community as its nucleus.

Orange County Workforce Innovation High School's (OCI) collective capacity building towards a shared commitment to the CA Community Schools Framework and the Overarching Values was evident throughout the two years of planning with our educational partners and in the development of the goals for our Community Schools Implementation Plan in alignment with our LCAP and other school-wide plans. Since OCI is a non-profit public charter school that offers a personalized educational model designed for 'At-Promise' high school students who were not successful in traditional high schools, the values of being racially-just, relationship-centered, social-emotionally safe, with strong classroom-community connections are central tenets of our program. OCI students come from diverse backgrounds, including those from dysfunctional environments where there has been significant trauma. OCI is committed to every student's success by building an inclusive, personalized educational experience that fosters belonging, connection, and empowerment while restoring trust between students and the educational system. We offer a flexible, personalized education program that, through a Community Schools approach and Whole Child lens, aims to support students define success on their own terms through both diploma and lifelong college and career skills.

Within this Implementation Plan, the CA Community Schools Framework will guide our work to build an equitable, empowering, and lasting Community School through collective capacity building, shared power and decision-making, assets and strengths-driven practice, and united commitment to the Four Pillars, Four Key Conditions for Learning, Four Cornerstone Commitments, and Four Proven Practices. With the nine capacity-building strategies detailed in this plan as a roadmap, we intend to move along the sequential phases of growth and development from Visioning to Engaging to finally Transforming.

OCI CCSPP Draft Collective Priorities:

1. Build Collective Understanding and Shared Commitment through an ongoing Needs and Assets Assessment process centered on local data and community-based definitions of success
2. Expanded and Equitable access to Culturally Responsive, high-quality academic support and resources for improved academic outcomes
3. Develop Integrated Services and Community Partnerships plan for Whole Child and Family Support
4. Expand educational partner opportunities for Shared Decision-making and Collaborative Leadership.

OCI LCAP Goals:

1. Increase Academic Progress
2. Students Will Gain Skills for College and Career-Readiness

3. Increase Student Retention

4. Increase Educational Partner Engagement

In collaboration with educational partners as equal interest holders, OCI is committed to developing a robust evaluation plan that is firmly rooted in local data and embraces diverse community-based definitions of success. Our ongoing Needs and Assets Assessment will ensure an extensive dialogue with families, students, staff, and community members to identify unique priorities and desired outcomes that are reflective of our local context. This focus on shared power and equal voice within our school community ensures that any evaluation metrics align with the community's needs, values, and aspirations.

Using the improvement science of a Plan, Do, Study, Act model and the CA Community Schools Framework as our designs for continuous improvement, we will work collaboratively to establish a set of comprehensive and inclusive measures that encompass academic, social-emotional and mental health, community and family engagement, and other outcomes and are responsive to our existing schoolwide plans and goals while attuning to emergent community-based needs.

Local, state, and federal data sources, including academic performance indicators from the CA Dashboard, attendance rate, chronic absenteeism, and graduation rate will be synthesized with community-based data like survey results, empathy interviews, visioning and possibility thinking exercises, and meeting agendas and minutes from focus groups and existing committees to ensure that regular feedback is obtained and transparent, responsive communication channels and platforms are maintained. With a Community Schools Steering Committee consisting of members across our educational partner groups of students, parents, staff, and community members as the primary governing body and vehicle for driving action, OCI will regularly monitor this Implementation Plan and work with our Parent Advisory Committee, English Learner Advisory Committee, Student Council, and other educational partner groups to develop an Evaluation Plan. This Evaluation Plan will assess progress towards embodying the CA Community Schools Framework and the Overarching Values by providing professional development to improve asset-driven, racially-just, relationship-centered spaces with restorative practices, culturally-responsive education, and shared decision making.

Strategy 2: Collective Priorities: Setting Goals and Taking Action (The Needs and Assets Assessment)

When interest-holders come together to identify collective priorities (through a needs and assets assessment), it fosters shared focus on those areas deemed most critical by local communities, influences the impact of the strategy, and helps build momentum to sustain efforts over time.

Part A: As part of the planning process, you have gone through an initial process of understanding needs and assets. As you initiate the implementation grant process and obtain site-level resources, please reflect on how you will go deeper in this needs and asset assessment process to engage the entire community in identifying their top community school priorities and vision. PPlease reflect on how you will engage different groups (administrators, certificated staff, classified staff, students, family members, community members and community partners) and identify the processes (e.g., surveys, one-on-one interviews, focus groups, visioning exercises, meetings/forums, etc.) you will use to engage them. Describe how you will engage historically marginalized student and family groups. engage them. Describe how you will engage historically marginalized student and family groups.

Led by our State and Federal Programs Coordinator and Parent Engagement Liaison, OCI's school community worked to build collective understanding and shared commitment toward the CA Community Schools Framework over the past 18 months. This was done through conducting a multi-tiered Needs and Assets Assessment process that collected qualitative and quantitative data from educational partner groups to map school community resources and identify achievement gaps using local, state, and federal data from sources such as CDE DataQuest, State and Local Priority Indicators, School Accountability Report Cards (SARC), Annual Surveys, Local Control Accountability Plan (LCAP) data, site-specific Community School surveys, and more. This school data, as well as information regarding Community Schools, was shared widely at Parent Advisory Committee and English Learner Advisory Committee meetings, Student Council meetings, staff meetings, and community partner meetings.

Two rounds of Community School surveys were delivered to educational partners. The first, a Community Schools Initial Survey, received 8 responses. As our collective understanding of the Community Schools framework grew with frameworks like the Four Pillars and Four Cornerstone Commitments, a second round of surveys expanded upon the previous survey's scope, and individual Community School Surveys were delivered to parents, students, and staff members. Recognizing that the Needs and Assets Assessment is an ongoing process rather than a singular tool or point in time allowed us to refine our focus toward two important results

- 1) a more accurate and representative baseline of responses across our educational partner groups through increased participation rate, and
- 2) a more versatile and responsive model for an ongoing Needs and Assets Assessment with intervals for progress monitoring.

The second round of Community Schools Surveys currently has 26 student responses, 24 parent responses, and 32 staff responses.

Next, we have begun holding a dedicated and ongoing meeting platform for Community Schools called Community School Coffee Hour. We intend to continue our Community School Coffee Hour model of welcoming and open conversations-based meetings as an inviting space for all educational partners to engage and learn about our Community Schools work. As we strengthen the rhythm and depth of this platform through consecutive meetings, it will serve as a targeted focus group to delve deeper into specific areas of concern for the continued development of priorities and actions. Through first creating a dedicated, accessible platform for diverse groups of educational partners to meet and learn, a more nuanced and precise understanding of priorities can be obtained, thereby ensuring that all voices are heard and a sense of inclusivity and ownership can be developed in the decision-making process.

We intend for our Needs and Assets Assessment to be an integral part of an ongoing cycle for continuous improvement that will be woven into and articulated across all schoolwide plans. Slowing down to capture wide and representative participation from educational partners in substantial ways is insurance toward the planning and actions being accurate in reflecting true community needs. As such, we will continue our Needs and Assets through a comprehensive and ongoing process that solicits qualitative and quantitative feedback from all educational partner groups through tools and strategies such as the Whole Child and Family Support Inventory; Annual Surveys; Community School Surveys; Focus Groups; Individual Empathy Interviews; and Visioning and Possibility Thinking exercises among others.

We plan to expand and improve our engagement with historically marginalized student and family groups in a number of ways. With our Parent Engagement Liaison, we intend to redesign our student orientation process for early identification of needs through dedicated and ongoing outreach, coordination of services, and strategic progress monitoring: we want to be able to anticipate and identify the needs of our most vulnerable students and families in order to route appropriate interventions early on and monitor for support. We also plan to increase our educational partner meetings to enhance consistent access to important school information. To do this, there is a focus on parent-friendly language and presentation content, professional translation services, and consistent meetings to reinforce information. We also plan to introduce the Be Strong Families Parent Café model to develop peer-to-peer relationships among our families while providing a dedicated space to build community. We will also continue to source and build community partnerships with organizations and institutions that can eliminate barriers and offer vital services to our school community, specifically in the domains of workforce development, social-emotional well-being and mental health services, parent education and engagement, and culturally relevant and high quality instruction. Through all this, we will center shared decision-making at the heart of our work to shape our intentions, conversations, and actions.

By engaging educational partners in an ongoing and dynamic Needs and Assets Assessment that is intentionally designed to eliminate barriers for our marginalized groups, we will not only gain valuable insight on academic, social-emotional, and infrastructure needs, but, more importantly attune and adjust in real time response to the needs of our community members.

Part B: As sites complete the needs and asset assessment process, they identify collective priorities that form the initial focus of their community school implementation efforts. Given your preliminary needs and asset assessment, please share three draft collective priorities that you anticipate arising as you achieve deeper engagement with students, staff, families and community members.

One of the priorities should align with a support listed in the Whole Child and Family Supports Inventory (e.g., integrated student supports, authentic family and community engagement, collaborative leadership, extended learning time and opportunities, positive and restorative school climate, community-based curriculum and pedagogy, etc.). The collective priorities you list below may be the same goals you will ultimately report in the APR, or they may change throughout the course of your first year as you continually engage students, staff, families and community members.

Draft Collective Priority

Outcome/Indicators you aim to improve

Expanded and Equitable access to Culturally Responsive, high quality academic support and resources for improved academic outcomes	This is a comprehensive priority goal aligned across existing schoolwide plans and goals in order to enhance and improve instructional support for student success - connected to Pillars of Extended Learning Time and Opportunities and Integrated Student Supports <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Increase number of students receiving one-on-one academic tutoring ● Increase number of students showing academic growth in ELA and Mathematics as measured by NWEA ● Increase number of students meeting standards in ELA and Mathematics as measured by CAASPP ● Increase English Learner reclassification rate ● Improve student engagement with students completing 2.0 credits and reduced chronic absenteeism

Develop Integrated Services and Community Partnerships plan for Whole Child and Family Support	This is a maintenance goal focused on early identification, coordination, and delivery of critical services and resources to address academic, physical, social-emotional, and mental health needs - connected to Pillars of Integrated Student Supports and Family and Community Engagement <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Develop Partnership Matrix to ensure alignment to CCSPP Four Essential Pillars and LCAP Goals ● Refine orientation, onboarding, and progress monitoring, and re-engagement processes for delivery of student services ● Partner with community organizations to build comprehensive wraparound services for social-emotional, mental, and physical health
Expand educational partner opportunities for Shared Decision Making and Collaborative Leadership	This is a collective goal aimed at increasing meaningful educational opportunities that address the needs for each of our educational partner groups: students, parents, and staff alike - connected to Pillars of Family and Community Engagement, Collaborative Leadership and Practices for Educators and Administrators, and Extended Learning Time and Opportunities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Strengthen and refine existing partnerships like WIOA ● Increase and strengthen student opportunities for connectedness, attachment, and community building ● Increase authentic family and community meeting opportunities such as Community Schools Steering Committee and Parent Advisory Committees ● Provide continued professional development for staff in priority areas

Strategy 3: Collaborative Leadership

Shared decision-making ensures all interest-holders have a voice in the transformation process and fosters shared power of the strategy. Collaborative leadership improves coordination of services, fosters supportive relationships, results in decisions that are widely accepted and implemented, and supports sustainability of the effort.

At the system level, LEAs establish a system-level steering committee/advisory council to conduct exploration activities and to provide crucial guidance to school-level implementers. At the site level, schools map and assess the current shared governance structures (where and how decisions are made) in their building and community, identifying all existing school-site and local neighborhood teams, networks, or working groups to understand their purpose and composition. Schools then launch or revise site-level shared leadership structure(s) to facilitate democratic participation and decision-making among students, staff, families, and community members.

Describe your goals for strengthening collaborative leadership.

Site Level Goals and Measures of Progress

Describe the system of shared governance and site-level leadership structure at your community school (this could be a visual like an organizational chart of other graphic):

OCI's Community Schools Implementation Plan's structure for collaborative leadership practices and shared decision making is represented in the following organizational chart. The Community Schools Steering Committee will become the lead governing structure to provide guidance to school leadership and conduct the ongoing Needs and Assets Assessment, Implementation Plan activities, and program evaluation, with the Parent Advisory Committee acting as a secondary educational partner body to review progress and provide feedback. All other educational partner groups will also engage in reciprocal communication with the Committees and school leadership through existing meeting structures and new focus groups.

Strategy 4: Coherence: Policy and Initiative Alignment

Establishing coherence and alignment across policies and initiatives is critical in the success of the community school strategy. Coherence helps clarify purpose, ensures efficient use of resources, avoids conflicting policies, creates synergy and the amplification of impact, and promotes sustainability.

A coherent and comprehensive plan/strategy for community schools “de-silos” all parallel LEA and school-level initiatives. Schools fully integrate the community school strategy with all existing school-wide strategic plan(s)/ improvement plan(s) such as the LCAP and SPSA. The community school implementation plan and school improvement plan become one cohesive plan. Describe your goals and action steps for establishing policy and initiative alignment.

Site Level Goals and Measures of Progress

Strategy 5: Staffing and Sustainability

A focus on staffing and sustainability ensures that the necessary human and financial resources are available to maintain the strategy over time, and to sustain continuous progress and improvement.

Describe your goals and action steps for ensuring that: staffing serves the target student population, LEAs recruit and hire diverse, multilingual staff to support site-level work, including an LEA-level Community School Director/Coordinator. Schools hire site-level coordinators. Both sites and systems develop sustainability plans to ensure core staffing is sustained through long-term funding.

Describe the plans or steps you are considering to build sustainability beyond the life of your implementation grant:

Sustainability and longevity are central to our Community Schools approach as well as dedicated outcomes in our Implementation Plan. To this end, we are strategically planning several key steps.

First, continuing to strengthen our established partnerships with community organizations while forging new relationships with local agencies, businesses, and institutions to reinforce funding and resources will help ensure our Community Schools initiative will thrive beyond the grant term.

Secondly, investing in collaborative leadership and practices through professional development and capacity-building not just for educators and staff but all willing community members is another aspect of our sustainability goal. Equipping educational partners and building homegrown leaders with the necessary skills and knowledge will increase investment and sustain momentum for ongoing growth.

Next, another intentional goal is to integrate Community School practices and goals into existing school policies, structures, and plans to achieve coherence and alignment at a systematic level. During Year 1 of our Implementation Plan, OCI's Community Schools Steering Committee will work with school leadership and staff as well as educational partner groups like Parent Advisory Committee and Student Council to develop this coherence and alignment. Weaving our efforts from our Community Schools initiative and Implementation Plan into the infrastructure of our existing strategic plans such as our LCAP and WASC and school-wide goals such as CSI will ensure institutional support and make it an integral part of our long-term vision and mission.

The Community Schools Steering Committee will also incorporate best practices for Community School sustainability as informed by the California Department of Education, the S-TAC (State Technical Assistance Center); the R-TAC (Regional Technical Assistance Center), the San Diego County Office of Education; and our local authorizer, the Orange County Office of Education. OCI and our Community Schools Steering Committee will also work with an community partners to conduct formative and summative evaluations that include quantitative and qualitative assessments (along with the CDE-required CCSPP evaluation components) to determine 1) the school's success in implementing the Community Schools model with fidelity and 2) the Implementation Plan's overall impact and success in meeting target performance measures related to the designated goals and local, state, and federal indicators of success.

The Community Schools Steering Committee will present the results of our ongoing Needs and Assets Assessment and the Evaluation Plan to the Parent Advisory Committee and the OCI Board of Directors to demonstrate the Implementation Plan's return on investment resulting from improved student outcomes, expanded learning opportunities, increased educational partner engagement, improved coordination and delivery of vital services, and other intended transformational outcomes.

Strategy 6: Strategic Community Partnerships

Developing strategic community partnerships allows schools and LEAs to build a stronger network of support and culturally responsive programming and resources for students, educators and families, and to foster a more inclusive, democratic and supportive learning environment that benefits everyone in the community.

In alignment with strategies developed in response to the deep needs and asset assessment, schools identify and establish school-community partnerships who share a holistic focus on students, families and the community. This section should demonstrate your goals and action steps to ensure community partners are actively involved in the planning, development, and continuous improvement of the community school.

Describe the partnerships you have established or plan to establish, and how your school's partnerships will be responsive to the vision and priorities of students, staff, families and community members:

Throughout the Community Schools planning process, OCI staff and educational partners have engaged with local leaders and community partners to conduct the Needs and Asset Assessment to identify strengths and gaps. This included completing an inventory of existing community-based service providers to begin a Partnership Matrix, which lists community partner organizations and their services. OCI attended the OCDE Joint Networking meeting, a countywide interagency workshop comprised of The Family and Community Partnership (FCP) Network, McKinney Vento/Foster Youth Liaison Network, Community Schools Network, Early Learning, and Child Welfare and Attendance Network convening to discuss strategies for supporting students and families. Along with these county agencies, the list below includes existing key community-based service providers as well as prospective partnerships currently in progress or planned to be sourced to align with and meet the CCSPP 9 Capacity Building Strategies, Four Essential Pillars, and Whole Child and Family Support Inventory.

Based on our planned goals and metrics, we will continue to develop additional formal and informal partnerships with organizations in our community where students, families, and community members can access enriching educational opportunities on important topics like parenting skills, digital literacy, workforce readiness, and more. We will continue to conduct a thorough needs assessment to determine the prevalent needs of our community, with the goal to transform our learning center into a true community hub where needs and hopes are met with opportunities and resources.

Below is a sample list of our existing partnerships aimed at providing comprehensive support aligned to the Whole Child and Family Support Inventory for mental, social-emotional, and physical health. Through deepening our existing partnerships and progress monitoring outcomes with our ongoing Needs and Assets Assessment, we'll strengthen the infrastructure of our community network for delivering comprehensive services while simultaneously identifying service gaps.

Strategy 7: Professional Learning

Professional learning enhances collaboration and coordination and provides opportunities for interest-holders to develop shared understanding, build relationships, and coordinate their efforts to better support student success.

Below, describe your goals and action steps for professional learning opportunities specific to the community school strategy. Consider role-specific professional learning supports that are offered to administrators, educators, classified staff, families, and other role groups as necessary. Also consider how schools identify the supports and professional learning needed to support the community schools initiative, including learning focused on shared leadership and a reimagining of teaching and learning to be collaborative, relationship-centered, culturally-affirming/relevant, asset-based, democratic and community-based.

Strategy 8: Centering Community-Based Curriculum and Pedagogy

Community-based curriculum and pedagogy builds on the rich, diverse cultural, linguistic backgrounds of students and families. It can increase students' engagement in their learning by connecting to real-life experiences and issues that are relevant to students' lives and communities, improving their sense of ownership and agency.

Describe your goals and action steps to assist educators in learning the theoretical roots and practical elements of community-based learning.

Strategy 9: Progress Monitoring and Possibility Thinking

When interest-holders come together to review data on student outcomes and program effectiveness, they can ensure that the strategy is responsive to the assets and needs of students and families and adapt practices to better support success. Progress monitoring and possibility thinking allows for the celebration of successes, development of new strategies, structures and practices, and builds stronger relationships and partnerships among interest-holders.

Describe how your site, with educational partners, will explore the development of an evaluation plan for the community schools initiative, rooted in local data and measures that allows for diverse community-based definitions of success. Describe how you are developing metrics to gauge success and to guide their work. Identify those potential outcomes/indicators.

Site Level Goals and Measures of Progress

Our school is dedicated to a thorough and collaborative development of an evaluation plan that is intentionally rooted in local data and diverse community-based definitions of success. Inherent in developing this plan is to deepen and extend existing engagement with our community members to validate the unique priorities and desired outcomes reflective of our local context. Part of our ongoing work in deepening engagement is raising the collective capacity of our educational partners through deliberate professional development regarding the CA Community Schools Framework, existing schoolwide plans and how they align with the Framework, and important State and local priorities like the CA Dashboard. The following goals, action steps, and outcomes/indicators maps out our intended plans for developing the evaluation plan.
